

I have tried calling the corporate number. Although I have checked with the local San Antonio stations to verify that they are airing "Stolen Honor", the corporate answering machine puts a spin on their actions. The FCC must take action against these stations.